"Washington President," rev. eagle with expanded wings and thirteen stars directly over its head. I do not know of another of this type excepting in copper, the condition is fine	1

Pieces.

- 722 1792 This piece is known as the Roman Bust Washington, and is by far the rarest of any of the Washington cents, and realized more than any other American coin known, having been purchased by the owner for $480, obv. "Washington, President," the head of Washington being totally different from any other known by American Collectors, rev. the word cent directly over the eagle which is different from any other on the Washington pieces, with expanded wings, only six stars, the condition is splendid and will be a great acquisition to an American collection I believe not more than four have ever as yet been discovered, size 21
- 723 1794 "Washington, President." Head. rev. An Eagle, similar to the early American Dollars, in a wreath—United States of America—in silver and in very fine condition—the die cracked, size 26
- 724 1794 Another precisely similar, in copper, size 26

The pieces described above were purchased by myself some five years since, under an assurance from the seller that he believed them to be original, and I have never been able to meet with any person who had ever seen them before. I regret not being able to furnish any positive information of when, or by whom, they were struck.—EDWARD COGAN.

The pieces are very rare, and may not unfairly be considered unique and of considerable interest.
